Plan of Salvation

Hear - (Rom. 10:14) "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?"

Believe - (John 8:24) "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins."

Repent - (Luke 13:3) "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

Confess - (Rom. 10:9) "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."

Be Baptized - (Acts 2:38) "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Be Faithful - (Rev. 2:10) "Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

WHAT I OWE MY HOME CONGREGATION

Unto the church of my Lord in every locality, I am under solemn obligation to the extent of my ability but unto my home congregation I am under special obligation.

- ◆ I want my home congregation to radiate a wholesome influence in the community. Therefore, I owe it the example of a good life. For it I must live “soberly, righteously, and godly” (Matt. 5:13-16).
- ◆ I want the strangers who enter the door of the meeting house to feel at home, to learn to love us, to return from time to time. They are guests; I must consider them. I owe it to them and to the church to show myself friendly. I must not stand back and wait for others to greet them; this I must do (Heb. 13:2).
- ◆ No congregation can make progress without faithful and efficient leaders. To a certain extent, the members of the church make or break their leaders. To an end that our leaders may be stronger and more efficient, I must give them my support. As long as they are true men, I must not embarrass them in their work (I Timothy 5:19).
- ◆ My home congregation has financial obligations which are due at the regular intervals. Whether I give or do not give, these obligations must be paid. If it is right for my congregation to pay its obligations each week, it is right for me to give each week. Though circumstances may force me to be absent at times, my contributions must find their way to the treasury of the church (I Cor. 16:1-2).
- ◆ I know that the very existence of any congregation depends upon the attendance of its members. In fact, the attendance is the life of the church. For this reason I must attend the service—all the services I can. I would not have it said that my home congregation perished because I would not attend services (Heb. 10:25).
- ◆ I must set myself to the noble work of winning souls for Christ. I must meet my obligations to the best of my ability. I must with the help that God gives play my part in the work of building the body of Christ which He purchased with His own precious blood.

Didn’t our young men do a tremendous job last Sunday. We are blessed to have such a great group of young men. If you were not here, you really missed a treat. Jerome did an outstanding job proclaiming God’s Word (I am worried). Zach did outstanding in leading our song service. Scott, Casey, Wes, Adam, and one of our not so young men helped in various other parts of the worship service. I can’t wait until the next fifth Sunday in August.
